

REMARKS

Allowable Subject Matter – Claims 7-20, and 29-39 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

5 The applicant thanks the Examiner for the indication of the allowable subject matter.

As was found allowable by the Examiner in the Office action of 01/31/2008, the applicant has amended claim 7 to include all the limitations of intervening claim 4 and original base claim 1 as originally filed and found allowable. In this way, currently amended claim 7 is now equivalent to claim 7 written in independent form as was originally filed and found allowable in the Office action of 01/31/2008. Additionally, claim 1 is amended to correct antecedent basis issues in front of “activity level” and “region mode”. No new matter is entered. Claims 8-20 are dependent upon currently amended claim 7 and should be found allowable for at least the same reasons.

15 Similarly, the applicant has amended claim 29 to include all the limitations of intervening claims 28 and 27 and original base claim 24 as originally filed and found allowable. In this way, currently amended claim 29 is now equivalent to claim 29 written in independent form as was originally filed and found allowable in the Office action of 01/31/2008. No new matter is entered. Claims 30-39 are dependent upon currently amended claim 29 and should be found allowable for at least the same reasons.

20 All other claims are cancelled without prejudice or disclaimer to the subject matter thereof.

Allowance of pending claims 7-20 and 29-39 is respectfully requested.

Conclusion:

25 Thus, all pending claims are submitted to be in condition for allowance with respect to the cited art for at least the reasons presented above. The Examiner is encouraged to telephone the undersigned if there are informalities that can be resolved in a phone conversation, or if the Examiner has any ideas or suggestions for further advancing the
